CHAIRMAN HARRITY BACK. THE DEMOCRATIC CAMPAIGN COM MITTEE MEETS TO-DAY.

Connecticut Requires Attention This Year an Well as the Northwest, of Which Hosy News Seems to be the Pashton. Chairman William Francis Harrity returned to his duties at Democratic national headquarters yesterday morning, and was assisted in the conduct of affairs by William C. Whitney, Treasurer Roosevelt, Josiah Quincy, in charge of the literary bureau, and J. J. Richardson, the member from Iowa. Senator Daniel W. Voorhees, who was expected from Indiana to talk over the situation among the Hooslers with Chairman Harrity and Mr. Whitney, did not arrive, but it was stated that he will be on hand to-day when the meeting of the Campaign Committee called by Chairman Don Manuel Dickinson will be held at 11

To-day's meeting, it is expected, will be attended by every member of the Campaign Committee, though it is possible that Senator Ransom of North Carolina may not get here. In case he should fail to arrive his proxy will probably be given to Mr. Richardson of Senators A. P. Gorman of Maryland and Calvin & Brice of Ohio and E. C. Wall of Wisconsin were among the members of the committee who arrived last night. Chairman Dickinson is expected this morning. Mr. Wall said that it makes no difference whom the Republicans of Wisconsin nominate at their State Convention to be held in Milwaukee to-day. He said that the Republicans who were gained to the Democratic cause in 1890 have not returned to their old love, and that the chances of Democratic success are better than ever before. Ex-Senator John C. Spooner, Mr. Wall said. will probably be the nominee for Governor.

Ex-Mayor Grace was closeted with Chairman Harrity for a few minutes yesterday. It was said that the conference between these two had to do with the hostile attitude which Mr. Grace and his May movement friends have assumed toward the local Democratic organtration, but neither Mr. Harrity nor Mr. Grace would confirm or deny the story. The ex-Mayor would only say that he had called only for the purpose of discussing the situation preparatory to his departure for the Adironlack region with his family.

Although the Democratic committee has hopes of taking some of the Northwestern States out of the Republican column with the assistance of the People's party, it has not forgotten that there are doubtful Eastern States, and that Connecticut, which has been on the Democratic side in recent elections, may not east its electoral votes for the Demo-cratic candidates unless a hard and deter-mined light is made. The State was carried by a bare plurality of 333 votes four years ago, and the Republicans count on overcoming this cratic candidates unless a hard and determined light is made. The State was carried by a biser plurality of 33% votes four years ago, and the lieubilicans count on overcoming this through the benedits accruing to the tobacco raisers of the State from the McKinley bill. The acreage devoted to tobacco culture has greatly increased, as has also the price which the farmers receive for the weed, "Gov." Smalley will flood the Nutmeg State with some of the best talkers at the disposal of the National Committee.

The committee will also help the Democratic State Committees of Maine and Vermont to keep down the Republican pluralities in the september State elections, to the end that the effect of the Republican victories, if the Republicans are victorious, on the rest of the country shall be lessened. On the other hand, the Republican National Committee has been appeared to to assist the Republican State Committees in those two commonwealths to make the Republican pluralities as large as possible. Senator Redfield Proctor and National Committeeman M. S. Coburn of Vermont were at Republican national head-quarters yesterday to make arrangements for a monster mass meeting to be held in Burlington aug. 30, and for smaller meetings in other sections of the State during the campaign, which will end Scpf. 6, when the vote for Ptate officers will be cast. Gov. McKinley of Ohio will be one of the speakers at the Burlington Aug. 30. and for smaller meetings in other sections of the State during the campaign, which will end Scpf. 6, when the vote for Ptate officers will be cast. Gov. McKinley of Ohio will be one of the speakers at the Burlington meeting.

Committeeman Coburn said also that the new ballot reform law which has been adopted in Vermont may be dispensed with on the ground of unconstitutionality, and that the supreme Court will decree a return to the old-fashioned ballot system.

Chairman Thomas Henry Carter was in washington yesterday, and Gen. James S. Clarkson and Secretary McComas announced that he had found the man ing out interviews with visiting Republican Statesmen.

One of the reasons for Chairman Carter's visit to Washington was made public yesterday. He went there to get men to strengthen the force of employees of the National Committee. Mr. Carter used to be Secretary of the Republican Congressional Campaign Committee, and he knew of some men in the service of that committee whom he wanted very much at New York hoadquarters, and he went after them. Among them is Capt. McKee, who is the champion document landler and shipper. Harry C. New of the Indianapolis Journal and son of John C. New, who successfully managed Ben Harrison's canvass for renomination at Minneapolis, was at the Fifth Avenue Hotel last vight, and delighted his Republican friends with a rainbow-tinted account of the situation in the President's State. With the two great parties so evenly divided," said he, "of course its State is in constant political turmoil. There is nobody who will deny that Indiana is a doubtful State, but you will find plenty of Republicans who deny it this year.

"Naither the People's party nor the Prohibi-

"Neither the People's party nor the Prohibitionists will cut much of a figure in our State.
The former will not poll more than 20,000 votes, and the vote of the latter will be considerably smaller. I can also say that if the votes, and the vote of the latter will be considerably smaller. I can also say that if the People's party are looking to Judge Gresham to support their ticket and principles and ideas they will be disappointed. Judge Gresham is a consistent Republican, and is opposed to the People's party and itsideas."

There was talk about Republican headquarters to the effect that Sam Fessenden's oratorical bureau will not have the name of James G. Blaine on its list of speakers for the campaign outside the State of Maine, but that the ex-Secretary of State has consented to make two or three addresses in the Pine Tree State, which will be sent broadcast over the country by the National Committee's literary bureau.

NEW YORK DEMOCRATS UNITED.

Congressman McCreery Convinced of This After a Work's Stay in the City.

Washington, Aug. 16.—Representative James B. McCreery passed through Washington to-day, en route to his Kentucky home. He has been over in New York for the past week. mingling with the politicians at Democratic Headquarters to gauge the situation. He says he was surprised, but at the same time greatly pleased, to find such "sincere and beautiful armony among New York Democrata."

What foundation is there for the report that there is a feeling of discontent among the followers of ex-Mayor Grace because Mr Whitney has been elevated to such an exalted position by the press and the politicians?" "There may have been some friction." said

Gov. McCreery. "just after the Chicago Convention, but my impression is that Mr. vention, but my impression is that Mr. Whitney smoothed it all away when he made that graceful and modest statement to the effect that more credit had been accorded him in the present campain than is his mat due. I met Mr. Grace at Democratic headquarters and had a very pleasant conversation with him.

There was nothing in his manner or in what he said which led me to imagine for one moment that he was disgruntled at the course followed by the managers of Mr. Cleveland's campaign. I also saw Mr. Whitney, and discussed the question with him, and I am convinced that the Democracy of New York are thoroughly united, and they are going into the approaching battle with a determination to will.

"I am not over enthusiastic on political matters as a rule, but I must say that I was entirely satisfied with the prospects as I found them in New York. The work of the campaign is in competent hands, and I am fully confident that Cleveland and Stevenson are going to win."

Hide and Leather Democratic Club. Gold street in front of the Healy building was crowded yesterday noon at the raising of the banner of the Hide and Leather Democratic Club, and for an hour business in the vicinity was neglected. Wagons could not pass and those inside the buildings gathered at the windows to witness the proceedings. Speeches were made by A. A. Healy, James Fraser, ex-United States District Attorney Welborn, and others. CHAIRMAN CARTER IN WASHINGTON.

He Says Platt to Going to do the Right Thing, and May Go on the Stump. WASHINGTON, Aug. 16.-Chairman Carter of the Republican National Committee, who arrived in Washington last night, visited the General Land Office this afternoon, and the clerks and other employees took advantage of the opportunity to give him a flattering farewell. A committee from the law division of the office, headed by Mr. F. H. Fimple, on be-well. A committee from the law division of the office, headed by Mr. F. H. Fimple, on behalf of the General Land Office presented Mr. Carter with a handsome gold watch and chain.

Chairman Carter called upon Mr. Michener to confer upon Indiana matters, and also went to the War Department to see Serertary Eikins about West Virginia, but Mr. Eikins was absent. Mr. Carter expressed roseato views about the Republican situation in New York. He said the National Committee was counting on a sure majority of from 20,000 to 30,000 for Harrison. There was no ground for uneasiness about Mr. Platt's attitude, Mr. Carter Informed his friends here, as he was going to do "the right thing." Though he was not to do any committee work, he would probably go on the stump and work earnestly for the ticket. The National Committee was informed also that Mr. Blains would make two or three speeches for Harrison.

It is said that the principal object of Chairmen Carter's visit at the present time is to have the word passed around quietly in the various departments that the National Committee is in need of funds, and ample opportunity will be given employees to contribute without violating the Civil Service law. Several of the well-known local collectors for the Republican Campaign. Committee hovered about the Arlington Hotel the greater part of the day, but Chairman Carter, after getting his watch, took a long drive out into the country to secretly admire it. He must have handled it carelessly, for upon his return to the hotel the beautiful timepiece was sent out to the jeweller's to be repaired. Mr. Fessenden of Naw York and Carson Lake, the husband of the little lady with the white parasol who created such a sensation at the Minnenpolis Convention in the interest of Baine, were the only conspicuous callers Chairman Carter had to-day. There were several campaign speakers of little or no reputation who sent up their cards to Mr. Carter, but word invariably came back that he was not in. KINGS COUNTY REPUBLICANS.

They Hold Their Monthly Meetings and Promise a Rattling Fight This Fall,

The Republicans held their regular monthly meetings last night in all the wards and towns in Kings county, and interest in the campaign was manifested by the large enrollnent of new members in the various associations. Arrangements were made in most of the wards to organize campaign clubs and uniformed Harrison and Reid brigades, and some of the more enthusiastic ward ornators predicted a rattling flight with the united and triumphant Democracy of Kings county.

The most notable meeting was in the Twenty-second ward, which has recently undersone a gerrymandering process, the strong Republican end having been attached to the Ninth ward, a Democratic stronghold, while it received a small slice from the Eighth ward. Warren Treadwell, the President of the association and Secretary of the tieneral Committee, and Samuel D. Moscrop, one of the inspectors of election, being residents of that part of the Twenty-second ward which has been tacked on to the Ninth, a motion was made to declare their places vacant.

As Messrs, Treadwell and Moscrop are ardent Nathan men, an effort was made by the anti-Willis partisans to defeat the motion, but after a brief but hot flight it was adopted, and James H. Baker and Thomas Morton were elected to fill the vacancies. A batch of over 200 old Eighth warders presented themselves for admission, but only thirty of them passed muster, and the remainder will remain on probation until some formalities are compiled with. Altogether 120 new members were admitted. some of the more enthusiastic ward orators

NEW JERSEY RUPUBLICANS.

Their State Committee Fixes Sept, 15 as the Date for the Convention. The New Jersey Republican State Committee seld a meeting yesterday afternoon in the State headquarters at 40 Montgomery street. Jersey City. The meeting was strictly private. John Kean, Jr., Chairman of the Committee, presided. In the absence of John Y. Foster. the Secretary, who is in Saratoga spending his vacation. Assemblyman J. Herbert Potts of Jersey City kept a record of the proceedings. The meeting lasted for two hours. At its close Mr. Kean, who expects to have the nomination for Governor forced upon him, said that nothing was done except to fix the date for the State Convention.

The date selected is Sept. 15, and the Convention will be held in the Taylor Opera. House in Trenton. Another member of the Committee said there is a probability of the date being changed if the Democratic State Convention should be fixed for a later date. The Republicans will probably not make any nomination until after the Democrats the Secretary, who is in Saratoga spending his the Field, Ticket or Not. Charles P. Blake, the leader of the New York Democracy in the old Sixth Assembly district, and one of William R. Grace's anti-snapper licutenants, said yesterday that his organization is neither dead nor sleeping, and that it will manifest its existence by proving itself a factor in the coming election. Mr. Blake said that the County Executive Committee of the New York Democracy will probably be called to meet at headquarters, 72 Second avenue, some time this week for reorganization on the basis of the new apportionment. The majority of the executive committee is in layor of this plan. Mr. Blake said, and there is plenty of ma-plan. Mr. Blake said, and there is plenty of material from which to select the six additional district leaders.

As to an independent local ticket this year Mr. Blake was reticent, though he said that he should probably have local candidates in his district, the new Fifth, so as to preserve the political standing of his organization under the new ballot law.

Delaware Democratic Convention.

Dover, Del., Aug. 16.-The Democratic Convention which met here to-day renominated ongressman John W. Causey by acclamation. The meeting was called to order by William H. Stevens of Scaford, Chairman of the State Central Committee. Victor B. Wooley of Wilmington was temporary Chairman, and in his address praised Grover Cleveland, at the mention of whose name there was great cheering. The Convention was harmonious throughout, there being no contests, and consequently no work for the Committee on Credentlals. I. Irving Handy of Newark was permanent Chairman. The platform also calls for better State tax laws and better educational facilities. The Convention adopted the "plough" as the device for the heads of the election tleket. There was a contest over the question whether it should be an eagle or a plough, and the farmers carried the day.

Congressman Causey was escorted to the platform at 3:35 o'clock. He thanked the Convention for his second nomination and spoke briefly on national issues. tion of whose name there was great cheering

Abandoning Election District Primaries. A dozen members responded to Chairman Charles A. Jackson's call for a meeting of the Executive Committee of the County Democracy at Cooper Union yesterday afternoon. Chairman Jackson and Secretary McGee made a report on the changes in the by-laws necessary to permit the County Democrats to hold sary to permit the County Democrats to hold primaries by assembly instead of by election districts.

The Executive Committee instructed Mr. Jackson to put his report into the form of a resolution, to be submitted to a meeting of the full County Committee, which will be held next Tuesday evening. When the resolution is adopted by two-thirds of the Assembly districts, and then come back to the County Committee will meter again on Monday afternoon at 3% o clock.

DEMOCRATS BY THE MYRIAD

Coming to the Convention of Bemocratic Preparations for the welcome and entertain-ment on a grand scale of the delegates to the Convention of the National Association of Democratic Clubs, to be held in this city on Oct. 4 and 5, were begun last night.

After consulting with Secretary Lawrence Gardner of the National Association, representatives of the Young Men's Democratic Club of the Empire State sent notices to the Democratic and Cleveland and Stevenson campaign clubs of New York city and the neighborhood, asking them to send representatives to a meeting to be held at the Hoffman Houseklast evening for the purpose of making the Convention a great Democratic

In response to this call representatives of about twenty clubs assembled in the banquet hall of the Hoffman House at 8 o'clock. W. D'H. Washington, President of the club that called the meeting, was elected to preside, and Frederick Goodwin was Secretary.

Chairman Washington said that there will be 10,000 Deprocratic clubs represented here In October, with ten times as many delegates as attend a National Convention. The delegates will represent every State and Territory. That their report of the attitude of New York Democrats may be encouraging to the Democracy of the nation, it was necessary, he said, that the delegates should be royally welcomed and entertained. This should be done for the honor and glory of the Empire State and for the good of the Democratic cause.

Some preparations had already been made by the officers of the National Association looking to the welcome and entertainment of the delegates, and that he had gone over a proposed programme with Secretary Gardner.

In making up the roll of club representations at the meeting these were found to be present:

James J. Traynor, Democratic Club of the city of morracy of the nation, it was necessary, he at the meeting these were found to be prosent:

Mr. Meakim said that he represented a club club: Walter Stanton, Dry Goods Men's Cleveland and Stevenson Club.

Mr. Meakim said that he represented a club which numbered in its membership many Republicans. These, he said, will support Cleveland heartily, but otherwise will vote with the Republicans. He did not feel, therefore, that he was authorized to bind his club to any agreement to welcome delegates to a Democratic Convention as Democrats.

Mr. Carr of the West Side Merchants' Club said he was in the same boot, while Mr. Watson of the Stock Exchange Club, and Mr. Granbery of the Jewilers' said that they were empowered only to report back the proposition to their clubs for consideration.

Nicholas R. O'Connor, who represented a regularly incorporated Democratic club, with none but Democrats for members, said that he did not believe it was necessary to delay proceedings to whilp Republicans into line; that the delegates are coming as Democrats, and it is the duty of the Democrats to show them that New York is not Chicago in its treatment of visiting Democratic clubs to entertain visiting Democrats, and that Republicans were not invited.

Mr. Meakim retorted that he was and always had been a Democrat, but that he would not impose on Republicans who were going to vote for a Democratic Presidential candidate.

The difficulty was finally adjusted by the passage of a resolution by which the gentlemen present resolved thomselves into a general committee which is to be augmented or changed at the will of the clubs which may or may not care to participate in the welcome and entertainment of the delegates.

Mr. Washington was also authorized to appoint an executive committee of fifteen. This he will do to-day, when its members will meet and confer with Secretary Gardiner of the National Association of Democratic Clubs on the details of the programme.

As proposed, these were outlined by Mr. Washington. They will consist, aside from the arrangements for social entertainment, of ngrand barade of welcome on the night of Oct 3, a parade on the night of Oct 4, whic

REPUBLICAN DISCORD IN ALBANY The Harrison Men Capture the County

Committee by Only Two Materity. ALBANY, Aug. 16 .- The attitude of the Republicans of Albany county toward President Harrison was shown to-night at the meeting of their County Committee. Out of fifty-six members present only twenty-nine voted for the Harrison committeemen, who were either contestants or whose seats were claimed by anti-Administration men. The anti-Harrison men mustered 27 votes, and the scant majority of two by which they rage, and they are declaring to-night that the County Committee of their party is doing better work for the success of the Democrats than their own Campaign Committee can do.

The meeting to-night was to decide contests in the Second and Seventeenth wards. The Committee on Conlested Seats has for some time stood 3 to 3, but recently, while State Committeman W. A. Barnes, Jr., was at Bur Harbor, his lieutenants, Smith O'Brien, James Wellington Bentley, and Robert Campbell, were outwitted by Surveyor of the Port John M. Bailey, Thomas Austin, and Eugene Burlingame, who were leading the Administration forces. rage, and they are declaring to-night that the

M. Bailey. Thomas Austin, and Eugene Burlingame, who were leading the Administration forces.

Gregory was persuaded to sign the majority report, favoring the seating of the two Harrison men contesting seats in the Seventeenth ward and the retention of the Harrison men already seated in the Second ward. This was the lirst victory. When it was known the fight for a majority of the General County Committee began, and the Administration men, by promising a man named Parker from the Twelfth a piace in the Post Office, gained the vote which enabled them to adopt the majority report by 20 to 27.

The Harrison men declare that their victory to-night is meant as a rebuke to State Committeeman Barnes, who owns the two Republican organs here, and who published an editorial saying "it was a mistake to nominate Harrison." Barnes and his licutenants are all ardent Platt men, and have been very sore over since the nomination of Harrison.

Their bitterness was expressed to-night in a sarcastic resolution offered by Robert Campbell to the effect that the Republican Campian Committee for Albany county be made up of Democratic clorks still in the Post Office here. The anti-Administration members of the County Committee threaten to resign, and declare that the polis for Harrison. An unprecedented Democratic majority will probably result from the fight of to-night.

THE DUCHESS OF MANCHESTER DUCH-ESS OF DEVONSHIRE NOW.

One of the Mest Familiar of English Ro mances in Real Life Happily Concluded by Yesterday's Ceremony in London, LONDON, Aug. 16 .- The Duke of Devonshire was married at Christ Church to-day to the Dowager Duchess of Manchester, with whom his name has so long been associated. The ceremony was extremely quiet, and only a few intimate friends were aware that the marriage was to take place. Sir Heary Calcraft acted as best man. The bride and bridegroom have started for the Continent, where they will spend the honeymoon.

THE DURE OF DEVONSHIRE.

The Duke of Manchester, whose widow becomes a bride again to-day, died at Naples on March 21, 1800, and was succeeded by his eldest son. Lord Mandeville, who married in 1876 Consuelo, daughter of the Inte Don Anconto Yznaga del Valle of New York. The Downger Duchess was for years prior to her husband's decease on terms of close friendship with the present Duke of Devonshire. who was then known as Lord Hartington.

They were inseparable companions, and their devotion was one of the most familiar of English romances. For years no one has Ireamed of inviting one of them to a country house or town house without the other, and t is perfectly understood that the Duke of Devenshire has remained a bachelor all these decades on her account.

The late Duke of Manchester was fully aware of the friendship his wife entertained for Lord Hartington. Nothing detrimental to their characters was deduced from their companionship. Upon the recent occasion of the visit of the Prince and Princess of Wales to the of the Prince and Princess of Wales to the Duke of Devonshire at his residence at Compton place. Eastbourne, the only other guest present was the Duchess of Manchester.

The father of the present Duke died at his residence, Holkar Hall, Milnethorpe, on Dec. 22, 1891, and he was buried in the Edensor churchyard, beside the body of his son, Lord Frederick Cavendish, who was murdered in Phonix Park, Dublin, several years ago by Irish Invincibles.

Spencer Compton, Marquis of Hartington.

Prederiok Cavendisis, who was inuncied in Phonix Park, Dublin, several years ago by Irish Invincibles.

Spencer Compton, Marquis of Hartington, P. C., D. C. L. L. L. D., M. A., Cambridge, was born July 23, 1833. He was made a Lord of the Admiralty in 1863 and Secretary of State for War in 1894. He was Postmaster-General from 1868 to 1871, Chief Secretary for Iroland from 1871 to 1874, Secretary of State for India from 1880 to 1882, and again Secretary of State for India from 1880 to 1882, and again Secretary of State for War from 1882 to 1885. He was a member of Parliament for North Laneashire from 1880 to 1885, Since November, 1885, he has been member of Tarliament for the Rossendale division of Laneashire. He was Lord Rector of the University of Glasgow from 1877 to 1880 and is Honorable Colonel of the Third Battery, Sherwood Foresters. Lord Hartington was formerly a supporter of Mr. Gladstone, but upon the introduction of the homerule question he abandoned his leader and assumed the position of head of the Liberal-Unionist party in the House of Commons. When he became Duke of Devonshire he was called to the House of Peers and his usculpess to his party was seriously impaired. His successor in the House of Commons was Mr. Joseph Chamberlain.

THE DOWAGER DUCHESS OF MANCHESTER.

Although the daughter of a Hanoverian noble, the Countess, whose full name is Louisa-Frederick Auguste, is the most typical English lady of the hunting and racing kind to be found in the kingdom. She is the daughter of the Comte d'Alten of Hanover. She married William Drogo, the seventh Duke of Manchester, July 22, 1852.

The Duchess of Manchester is now 60 years old. The story of the early separation of Lord Hartington and the Duchess is a romance. They were fondly attached while both were young, but the habitual indolence of Lord Hartington prevented a declaration. The lady tried to infuse energy into him by listening to the attentions of the late Duke of Manchester. This had a contrary effect upon Lord Hartington than she intended. She finally became the wife of the Duke of Manchester. The Duchess of Manchester, after her marriage, continued to have a powerful influence over Lord Hartington. He consulted her before he took a single important political step.

After waiting the length of time which decorum seemed to require between the death of his parent and a welding, the Duke of Devonshire has redeemed the pledgo, undoubtedly given long ago, to the wife and afterward the widow, of the Duke of Manchester. Although the marriage had long been foreseen the news has been received with surprise. It is understood that the Duke and Duchess somewing the berder would, of course, involve a season of mourning and would have caused the wedding to be delayed. THE DOWAGER DUCHESS OF MANCHESTER. yould have caused the wedding to be delayed. GUN TEST AT SANDY HOOK.

Work Delayed by the Number of Vessels

Of the Proving Grounds, The second of the series of tests to be made on the pneumatic disaprearing gun carriage before its acceptance by the Government was begun at the proving grounds, Sandy Hook, yesterday.

This test, unlike the first, was supposed to be made with projectiles containing 250 pounds of powder. The specification in the contract called for that amount, it being known as a service charge. The object of yesterday's test was principally to determine the velocity, the contract calling for 2.100 feet a second. As a service charge is what is used n time of war, the result of the test was anxiously looked for, it having much to do with the acceptance of the carriage. Ten shots were to be fired yesterday, but owing to the dolay occasioned by passing vessels only three were discharged. The powder used did not prove to be up to the standard, nor did the projectiles contain more than 240 pounds.

A wire screen was placed at a distance of sixty yards from the muzzle of the gun. The first shot was fired at about 20 clock, and the velocity registered 1,150 feet a second. Each succeeding shot registered the same, but, under the circumstances, the result was considered satisfactory, as it was found that the 240 pounds of powder contained in the projectiles was equal only to 227 pounds of standard powder. Between the second and third shots a procession of small schooners hove in sight, and it was fully two and a half hours before the coast was clear.

The last shot caused a recoil to within three inches of the buffers, and in less than half a minute the huge gun was in a loading position. The work of completing the second test will be resumed to-morrow, when the hand and steam compression capacity will be tried. anxiously looked for, it having much to do

MAYERICK BANK INDICTMENTS.

Four New Presentments Against Mesors, Potter, French, and Dans, Boston, Aug. 16, -Four indictments were reported to-day against Asa P. Potter, Jonas H. French, and Thomas Dana, ox-Mayerick National Bank officials, before Justice Putnam is the United States Circuit Court. French was admitted to ball in $10,000, John Stetson going his surety. Dana has not yet been arrested. In accordance with an arrangement between his counsel and United States District Attorney Allen. Justice Putnamffixed bail at $10,000 on the false entry indictment and at $20,000 on the false certification indictment. District Attorney Allen asked that the defendants present be arraigned, but the Court fixed Sept-15 as the date.

Two of the four new indictments are against Potter, and one each against French and Dana. Of the indictments against the ex-President of the Maverick, one contains eighty counts and the other thirty. One charges him with makthe other thirty. One charges him with making various false certifications of checks signed 'Irving A. Evans & Co.," the face value of them being between $109,000 and $200,000. In the other indictment Potter is charged with making false entries in the books of the bank, beginning in the spring of 1880, and ending on Oct. 12, 1891; and also with making false entries in reports to the Comptroller of the Treasury covering the years 1890 and 1891.

The indictment against French charges him with failure to report overdrafts of his, own amounting to about $80,000 in his reports to the Comptroller of February, May, and July of 1891. Dana is charged with a failure to report overdrafts aggregating $50,000 in his reports of July and October of the same year.

The "killed" indictments numbered eighteen.

or July and October of the same year.

The "killed" indictments numbered eighteen.

Nine of these were against Potter, five against French, and four against Dana. The acharges were false entries, embezzlement, misappropriation of funds, false certifications, and conspiracy. The nine indictments against Potter contained 188 counts, those against Potter contained 188 counts, those against Potter contained 17. The Grand Jury was excused until Oct. 1, at which time further investigation of the Maverick Bank will be made. In the indictments District Attorney Allen has aimed to make each count contain allegations sufficient to charge an offence, and several counts refer to the same transaction, so that if one falls another may hold. There is another indictment against the defendants which has not been made public, and it is on the secret files of the Circuit Court charging them with conspiracy. This indictment was returned by the Grand Jury several weeks ago, and placed on the secret files at that time. It is not known when the defendants will be called upon to answer to this one.

THE IRON HALL TROUBLES.

Suspension of the Philadelphia Banking

Company It Controlled. PHILADELPHIA, Aug. 10,-The Mutual Banking Surety Trust and Safe Deposit Company. the Philadelphia institution controlled by the officers of the Iron Hall, made an assignment for the benefit of creditors this morning. A. E. Stockwell, counsel for the company, was made assignee, and the assignment is the direct result of the demand of the attorneys in the Iron Hall proceedings at Indianapolls for an investigation and possession of the securities and money which sion of the securities and money which supreme Justice Somerby testified he had donated to the bank to make good an impairment of capital when the institution was closed by the State Superintendent of Banking last spring, as well as the $500,000 on deposit. The bank officials had until 10 o'cleck this morning to produce the books, papers, and securities, but at that time they decided to close up rather than let the lawyers investigate.

to close up rather than let the lawyers investigate.

Assignee Stockwell claims to know very little about the condition of the bank as yet, but the about the condition of the bank as yet, but says he is positive it will be able to pay dollar for dollar. The only official who is said to know anything about the bank is Secretary-Treasurer-Cashier Hayes, who cluded all interviewers and left early for his home in the country. The last published statement of the bank gives, among other items of resources: Cash on hand and deposited in bank, $184,-108,41; commercial and other paper owned, $28,042; 70; investment securities, $80,400.

There is a dispute as to the amount of fron Hall people claim that there is $713,000 in the concern, but the bank claim that there is nothing besides the $400,000 denosits and the $170,000 put in last spring to make good the capital.

INHANDOLIS, Aug. 16.—Judge Howe Som.

$170,000 put in last spring to make good the capital.

INDIANAPOLIS, Aug. 16.—Judge Howe, Somerby's attorney, says that the assignment of the Mutual Bank was not the result of agreement of counsel in the receivership case here saturday. He said Somerby for several months past knew nothing of the condition of the bank. He also denied that the defendants had agreed to the appointment of a receiver or any other compromise.

Supreme Accountant Walker of the Iron Hall was asked to night what affect the appointment of a receiver will have on the Iron Hall order.

It means good-by to the Iron Hall." said he. "A receiver will be appointed. I do not believe another witness will be placed on the stand.

It hink the evidence of Mr. Somerby and stand.

"I think the evidence of Mr. Somerby and the preliminary statement before the court, made by Judge Howe, were sufficient grounds for the appointment of a receiver. It's a bad state of affairs."

A Steamship Direct to Alexandria. To accommodate the American winter travel to Egypt, the Nile, and Palestine, the North German Lloyd Steamship Company have decided to despatch one of their large express steamers, the Ems. on Jan. 3, from New York for Alexandria, Egypt, touching at Gibraltar, Naples, and Palermo, returning via Naples and Gibraltar to New York. Gibraltar to New York.

Opportunity will thus be given to the large number of Americans who annually visit Egypt for the purpose of passing the winter menths in that sub-tropical climate, or who desire to visit Palestine, to reach these Eastern countries in the most direct and easiest way, crossing the Atlantic on southern latitudes, and avoiding the rough and wintry voyage of the north Atlantic, and long, laborious railroad rides from the mosthern naria, of warrantees. the north Atlantic, and long, laborious railroad rides from the northern ports of Europe to the Mediterranean.

The traveller on this direct route from New York to Alexandrin, Egypt, passes through the whole length of the Mediterranean, skirting the historic shores of this Inland sea, without any transfer between the shores of the New World and the ancient port of Alexandria.

but the l'eddier Escaped. New BRUNSWICE, Aug. 10.-John Long, 62 years old, a peddler, attempted to drive across the Pennsylvania Bailroad track at Suydan street this morning just after a west-bound train had passed. He had got nearly over when an east-bound train, which he had not seen an east-bound train, which he had not seen, came along, running forty miles an hour. The wagon was struck squarely and sen hour. The wagon was struck. The horse and wagon separated, and Long was pitched twenty feet into the rendway. He was picked up hadly hurt, but will live. The horse was killed and the wagon smashed into splinters. The persons who were at the Suydam street depot turned their eyes away from what they thought would be a frightful accident. The old peddler surprised them by walking off. He was so badly frightened that he was unconscious of his wounds.

Collector Hendricks Calls on the President at Locu Lake LOON LAKE, N. Y., Aug. 16.-President Harrison apparently does not weary of Loon Lake and the wild and romantic scenery hereabouts. Each day he takes his usual drive always accompanied by Mrs. Harrison. To day the drive was longer than usual and the route different. Mr. Hendricks, Collector of the Port of New York, was the first prominent politician to call on Mr. Harrison. He came to-day and held a long interview with the President. Just what his business is could not be learned. An army officer also called on the President to-day.

Archbishop Ireland Explains the Paribanit

St. Paul, Aug. 16.-Archbishop Ireland, in speaking of the Faribault school plan yesterday, said that it was not true that what the Catholics ask is the teaching of the Catholic religion in schools. What they wish, he said, is that the teaching in the schools be so conducted as not to injure the Catholic faith of children, or to prevent the instruction of the children in the Catholic faith.

Montanue and Debis Make No Explanation of Their Possessies of the Tobacco. Henry Montanus and John C. Dehls, who were arrested in Brooklyn on Monday as the receivers of the twenty-five bales of Sumatra obacco which were stolen from the pier of the Netherlands-American Steamship Company, n Hoboken, on the previous Tuesday, were ar raigned resterday morning before Justice Haggerty in the Adams Street Police Court. Each pleaded not guilty, through a repre-sentative of their lawyer, W. J. Gaynor, and the examination was fixed for next Tuesday.

The complaint in the case was made by the examination was fixed for next Tuesday.

The complaint in the case was made by John C. James, superintendent of the steamship company's dock, and Detective Connor. Mr. James identified the tobacce found in the possession of the prisoners as that which had been taken away by the truckman who presented a forged order for its delivery from A. Cohen & Co., to whom it had been consigned, and the detective's affidavit embodied the circumstances of the arrest. Mr. James valued the tobacco at $12,000, which was just half the value put on it by the police authorities on Monday night.

District Attorney Ridgway appeared in court to watch the case for the prosecution and raised no objection to the fixing of the amount of ball for the prisoners at $5,000 each. Christopher Osterheld of 413 Bridge street furnished fall for Montanus and Charles Uhig of 147 St. Mark's avenue and William Bussing of 197 Prospect place became bondsmen for Dahls. By the advice of their lawyer, both the accused men refused to make any statements, but the friends of each declare that a satisfactory explanation will be forthcoming as to their possession of the tobacco.

The Brooklyn detectives expected on Monday night to arrest the two truckmen who carted the tobacco from the Hoboken dock to a warehouse in Red Hook Point, and thence two nights later to Montanus's place, but so far neither of them has been found. A police official said last night:

"There is no doubt that a skilful scheme of robbery was conoceted and that several persons were engaged in it. The plan to get possession of the tobacco was well carried out, and its location would probably have remained undiscovered had not a sharp employee of the steamship company given the police authorities some valuable information.
